

(U) Former Detention and Interrogation Program–SSCI Study, Minority Views, and CIA Response

On 9 December, the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence (SSCI) released to the public the redacted Findings, Conclusions and Executive Summary of its study of CIA's former Detention and Interrogation Program. CIA's June 2013 redacted response to the SSCI study was also released today, as well as the Committee's redacted Minority views on the study, along with additional views by Members.

The three redacted reports, all in PDF format, are available via the links below, along with a list of answers to questions that CIA employees may have.

1. Findings, Conclusions, and Executive Summary of the SSCI Study of CIA's former Detention and Interrogation Program
2. CIA's June 2013 Response to the SSCI Study
3. Minority Views of the SSCI Study and Additional Views by Members
4. Frequently Asked Questions Regarding the SSCI Study
5. Important Note to Readers

(b)(3)

(This article is UNCLASSIFIED.)

Modified: 12/10/2014 5:17 PM
Published: 12/9/2014 11:05 AM